2023 Fall Residency Program
Advisory Checklist

The Residency Program can fulfill different academic requirements, depending upon your major.   Please discuss the following with your advisor. Miami University Center for Community Engagement Director John Blake is glad to meet with you and your advisor via zoom or in person on Oxford's campus to ensure that your study away keeps you moving towards graduation.

1. What Residency Program track do you intend to take this fall? (choose one)
    A.. Design Track   (16 CH)
    - ARC 301-402c   Architecture and Interior Design Studio (6 CH)
    - ARC 427   American Cities Since 1940 (3CH)
    - ARC 405z   Designing, Writing, and Social Change (3CH)
    - ARC 399b   Power, Policy, and Service (3CH)
    - ARC 399d   Residency Program Orientation (1 CH)

    B. Community Track   (16 CH)
    - ARC 399c   Community Placement TBD (6 CH)
    - ARC 427   American Cities Since 1940 (3CH)
    - ARC 405z   Designing, Writing, and Social Change (3CH)
    - ARC 399b   Power, Policy, and Service (3CH)
    - ARC 399d   Residency Program Orientation (1 CH)

    C. Social Work Track: (16 CH)
    - FSW 411   Social Work Field Experience (6 CH)
    - ARC 427   American Cities Since 1940 (3CH)
    - ARC 405z   Designing, Writing, and Social Change (3CH)
    - ARC 399b   Power, Policy, and Service (3 CH)
    - ARC 399d   Residency Program Orientation (1 CH)

    D. Teaching Track: (16 CH)
    - EDT 419   Student Teaching Practicum (15 CH)
    - ARC 399d   Residency Program Orientation (1 CH)

2. What requirements for your major do you expect the Residency Program to fulfill?

3. Will this experience be your thematic sequence? (not for ARC+ID majors)

4. What Miami Plan requirements do you anticipate the Residency Program will fulfill?

5. If you selected Community Track, what activities do you imagine for your placement? What expertise do you bring and what would you like to participate in?

6. Will the program fulfill your requirements for the Fostering Just Communities Certificate?

7. Who is your academic advisor, and have you met with them about your intention to participate? (name, title, email please):